Where the Woods Meet the Water

Tucked away on 1.99 wooded acres with 186' of shoreline, this cabin is the up north retreat you've been dreaming of. Rock formations, towering trees, and visiting wildlife surround you, while a private road leads down to your boathouse and the water's edge. Gather by the stove on cool evenings, host friends on the expansive deck, and head downstairs for game nights at the wet bar. With room to grow and a price that makes waterfront living within reach, this is your chance to make Lake Redstone memories for years to come.
